

Dear Mike

I'm not one to express my feelings, but I would just like to thank you for everything you've done for me over the past three years. Through thick and thin, in business my career and my personal life you have been the consistent factor and the motivating force that has allowed me to regain my self esteem and confidence. Thanks for everything
Graham.